SATURDAY, JULY 21, 1860.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

HON. JOHN C. WALKER, Democratic candidate for Presidential Elector, for the State at large, will address his fellow citizens of the 10th Congressional District, at the following times and places:

WARSAW—Tuesday, July 24th.
GOSHEN—Wednesday, July 25th.
LAGRANGE—Thursday, July 26th.
KENDALLVILLE—Friday, July 27th.
COLUMBIA CITY—Saturday, July 28th.
FORT WAYNE—Monday, July 30th.

The Speaking to commence each day at 2 o'clock P. M.

Our Daily.

Our new press has arrived, but as yet we have no news of the types, and cannot therefore announce the exact day when the Daily Sentinel will make its appearance. We can only say that we shall issue it as soon as the types arrive as possible—and hope to do so within the next ten or twelve days.

The State Democratic Ratification Meeting, held at Indianapolis on Wednesday last was not as largely attended as had been anticipated, the farmers, among whom the great bulk of the democracy are to be found, being mostly too busy with their harvest to attend political gatherings. Hon. George H. Pugh of Ohio, Gov. Willard, Mr. Hendricks, and Mr. Dunham were the principal speakers.

The Indianapolis mail till yesterday, consequently of the proceedings. We will give further particulars in our next.

Bell and Everett Convention.—The executive committee of the so-called Constitutional Party has issued a notice for a State Convention to be held at Indianapolis on the 15th of August next to nominate an electoral ticket, and perfect the organization of the party in the State.

Breckinridge Fizzle.—The disunited and disorganized held a convention at Indianapolis on Saturday last, which was a perfect failure, and shows how little hope there is for that faction in Indiana. The State Journal gives the names of all present, from which it appears that only 27 Breckinridge men could be raised in the eventual emergency, while 150 black Republican allies, Judge Eckles, of Utah, (who is waiting for Judge Huntington to die, in order that he may be appointed as successor) was the principal speaker on the occasion. The convention adjourned without a single cheer for their candidates or any other sign of life, animation, or enthusiasm.

County Matters.—A strong effort is being made in this County to create the impression that our County affairs have not been well managed—that our taxes are high—the money collected squandered on party adherents—that the Democratic, as the dominant party, is responsible for these things—and finally, but chiefly, that Republicans and Know-Nothings will fill the offices, as they would do better, act more economically, and prove more honest and faithful guardians of the public interest. Now, let us see how much better this immaculate party does, where in power, than the Democrats. In Lagrange County, the opposition is in a large majority, and have long had possession of all the County offices. The consequence is, the affairs of the County have been most rashly mismanaged, the people are ground down by taxation and oppression, and have called a convention to nominate a No-Party set of candidates. The call is signed by a number of the most respectable Republicans in the County.

Lagrange affair:—We find a fair specimen of what Republican officials will do when they have a chance, and the example should not be lost on those who are so chameleons, to have a change in our County officers. What should we gain? Taking Lagrange as a sample, the probability would seem to be, that we should lose by the elonge. Let them compare the two tickets—remember one is composed of Democrats, and the other chiefly of Know-Nothings and ultra-Republicans. Let them weigh these facts carefully, and the result must be, that all good sensible citizens will arrive at the conclusion that it would be better for the County, and more in accordance with their duty as prudent men and good citizens, to vote the Democratic ticket.

Disunion Paper in Indiana.—Jesse D. Bright has established a tri-weekly campaign paper at Indianapolis, call'd the Ollie Line Guard, edited by A. B. Carter. The avowed object of the paper is to support Breckinridge & Lane, the candidates of the Yancey disunionists—the real design being to draw off Democratic votes enough from Douglass to give Lincoln the majority in the state. Bright has sworn to set fire to Douglass in Indiana, but we have no idea he can accomplish his threat, or indeed any considerable number of Democrats to "vote" to the in-party, and give the state into the hands of the republicans, merely to gratify the personal antipathy and rancorous hate of jingoism-tourist against Mr. Douglass, who has more and warmer friends in Indiana than Mr. Bright could boast of in his palmiest days, before he had shown the clever foot of disunion or "larel" to openly oppose the regular nomine of the democratic party. His power for mischief is at an end, and he had better save the money he will sink in this newspaper speculation. It will prove less profitable than the investments he usually makes.

Charley Hill has opened a music store in St. Louis' building, opposite the public square, where he offers a splendid lot of pianos and other musical instruments, sheet music, &c. He is agent for some of the first piano manufacturers in the country, and will furnish the instruments at maker's prices.

He is also agent for the sale of Sloat's celebrated Sewing Machines, and Moore's $30 Machines, both of which are becoming favorite here. He invites the ladies to call and examine them.

The Richmond Jeffersonian.—This paper has changed hands, Mr. ELDER, selling the entire establishment to Mr. JOHN W. CULLIVAN. The new editor boasts the Douglass and Johnson banner, and thus defines his position.

Having been a Xanadu Democrat all our life, and in politics, the principles and practices of the Democratic party, and its principles, and, in fact, the pecuniary value of the Union and the Constitution itself, are retained in the price, and as such entitled the whole nation to Democracy, we intend giving them our cordial support.

Success to the Jeffersonian under its new management. It fairly represents the sentiments of the conservative Democracy of Indiana.

Courier for a Winter.—The establishment of the Polish Democrat at Winona, in this State, is offered for sale for $100, in three equal payments, Sept. 1, 1860; Feb., and Sept. 1, 1861. Address A. V. VALENTINE, Proprietor.

Organize.—Are the Democrats of Allen county aware that the election is drawing nigh? They ought to be organizing their forces and preparing for the conflict, but as yet we hear of nothing being done. Clubs ought to be established in every township, frequent meetings held, speeches made, and other means used to enlighten the public mind and defend the Democratic cause from the attacks made upon it. Our adversaries are active and using every means to advance their cause, while we remain supine and are taking no steps to maintain our ascendancy, and properly support our Presidential, State and County Tickets.

Democrats, arose! it is time to be up and doing. Set the ball in motion—get up your clubs, circulate Democratic papers and documents, and see that every man is kept posted in the political movements of the different parties, and prepared to defend the cause of Democracy and equal rights, in Territories as well as States.

Throw out your banners inscribed with the watchword: Douglass and non-intervention—Liberty and Union, now and forever—one and inseparable.

Let it from Oregon.—By the latest accounts from Oregon, it is conceded that the Democratic candidate to Congress from Oregon is elected and that such a Legislature has been chosen as renders certain the defeat of Gen. J. Lane and Douglass Smith to the U. S. Senate. Democratic papers, however, claim that no Republican can be elected to the Senate, and intimate the Lexington Democrat will compromise their differences so as to secure two Democratic Senators of moderate sentiments.

The Bad Hunting.—The hunting of exhibiting railroads purporting to have been split by Lincoln and Hale has been pretty effectually exposed by Charles Hanks (brother of John). After alluding to a letter said to have been written by John, in which he is made to say that he will vote for Lincoln & C. Charles shows that the rail made by Abe and Hale were destroyed by fire long ago, and that those now sold are the genuine Simon pure, were in fact made by a man who is now a poor blind paper. He says—

I am fully persuaded that brother John is taking the strange course that he is now pursuing for the purpose of making a little meat out of rail-splitting, and I could for one moment think that the Dealer sharpers in wheels had him placed in a difficult position, merely because of his personal hatred of Stephen A. Douglass. If we are not greatly mistaken, the people of Indiana will administer an indignant rebuke to this Senatorial dictator.

Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Freight Larnings for March, April, May and June 1860-61.—The Chicago Times is in receipt of the following figures from the freight department of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad for the first four months of the present year. The railings compared with those of 1859 show an aggregate increase of 66,914,100 per cent. This statement is more than encouraging; and I could for one moment have said that the rail made by John and Hale contained ten acres. About five years after this little farm was fenced the entire fence was hauled up to my certain knowledge, for I hauled the rails to fence it the second time. It will be seen that the 1860 earnings compared with those of 1859 show an aggregate increase of 66,914,100 per cent. This statement is more than encouraging; and I could for one moment have said that the rail made by John and Hale contained ten acres. Our Daily.

Our news press arrived; but as yet we have no news of the types, and cannot therefore announce the exact day when the Daily Sentinel will make its appearance. We can only say that we shall have it as soon after the types arrive as possible—and hope to do so within the next ten or twelve days.

The State Democratic Convention Meeting, held at Indianapolis on Wednesday last was not as largely attended as had been anticipated, the farmers, among whom the great bulk of the democracy are to be found, being mostly too busy with their harvest to attend political gatherings. Hon. George H. Pugh of Ohio, Gov. Wilard, Mr. Hendricks, and Mr. Johnson were the principal speakers.

The Indianapolis mail failed yesterday, and consequently we have not received a full account of the proceedings. We will give further particulars in our next.

Bell and Everett Convention.—The executive committee of the so-called Constitutional Party has issued a notice for a State Convention to be held at Indianapolis on the 15th of August next to nominate an electoral ticket, and perfect the organization of the party in the State.

Breckinridge Fizzle.—The disunited and disorganized hold a convention at Indianapolis on Saturday last, which was a perfect failure, and shows how little hope there is for that faction in Indiana. The State Senate gives the names of all present, from which it appears that only 27 Breckinridge men could be raised on the eventful occasion, who were nixed and kept in countenance by 85 black Republican allies. Judge Eckles, of Union, (who is waiting for Judge Huntington to die, in order that he may be appointed as successor) was the principal speaker on the occasion. The convention adopted a series of resolutions, and quietly adjourned, without a single cheer for their candidates or any other sign of life, animation, or enthusiasm.

County Matters.—A strong effort is being made in this County to create the impression that our County affairs have not been well managed—but our taxes are high—the money collected squandered on party adherents—that the Democrat, as the dominant party, is responsible for these things; and finally, but surely, that Republicans and Know-Nothings will fill the offices, as they would do better, act more economically, and prove more honest and faithful guardians of the public interests. Now, let us see how much better this imbecile party does, when in power, than the Democrats. In Lagrange County, the opposition are in a large majority, and have long had possession of all the County offices. The consequence is, the affairs of the County have been most rashly mismanaged—the people are ground down by taxation and oppression, and have called a convention to nominate a No-Party set of candidates. The call is signed by a number of the most respectable Republicans in the County.

Lagrange affords us a fair specimen of what Republican officials will do when they have a chance, and the example should not be lost on those who are so anxious to have a change in our County offices. What should we gain? Taking Lagrange as a sample, the probability would seem to be that we should lose by the change. Let our citizens hear this in mind. Let them compare the two tickets—remember one is composed of Democrats, and the other chiefly of Know-Nothings and ultra Republicans. Let them weigh these facts carefully, and the result must be that all good, sensible citizens will arrive at the conclusion that it would be better for the County, and more in accordance with their duty as prudent men and good citizens, to vote the Democratic ticket.

Democrat Paper in Indiana.—Jesse D. Bright has established a tri-weekly campaign paper at Indianapolis, called the Old Line Guard, edited by A. B. Carlton. The avowed object of the paper is to support Breckinridge & Lane, the candidates of the Yankee disunionists—the real design being to draw off democratic votes enough from Douglas to give Lincoln the majority in the state. Bright has sworn to defeat Douglas in Indiana, but we have no idea how he can accomplish this, or induce any considerable number of democrats to prove false to their party, and give the state into the hands of the republicans merely to gratify the personal antipathy and rancorous hate of our illustrious conqueror against Mr. Douglas, who has more and warmer friends in Indiana than Mr. Bright could boast of in his proudest days, before he had shown in cloven foot of disunion or tried to openly oppose the regular nominees of the democratic party. His power is mightily at an end, and he had better save the money he will sink in this newspaper speculation. It will prove less profitable than the investments he usually makes.

CHARLEY HILL has opened a music store, in Stedel's building, opposite the public square, where he offers a splendid lot of pianos and other musical instruments, sheet music, &c. He is agent for some of the first piano manufacturers in the country, and will furnish the instruments at maker's prices.

He is also agent for the sale of Shaw's celebrated Sewing Machines, and Moore's $300 Machines, both of which are becoming favorite here. He invites the ladies to call and examine them.

The Richmond Jeffersonian—This paper has changed hands. Mr. Black, selling the entire establishment to Mr. John W. Carter. The new editor boasts the Douglas and Johnson banner and thus defines his position:

Having been a loyal Democrat all our life, and believing that the future welfare and prosperity of the country depends on the success of the Democratic party and its principles, and, in fact, the popularity of our National Constitution and our beloved Douglass Johnson, we are compelled to support the National Democrats, we intend giving them our cordial support.

Success to the Jeffersonian under its new management. It fairly represents the sentiments of the conservative Democracy of Indiana.

Chance for a Prince.—The establishment of the Palatine Democrat, at Winona, in this State, is offered for sale for $100, in three equal payments, Sept. 1, 1860; Feb. 1, and Sept. 1, 1861. Address A. V. VALENTINE, Proprietor.

Organize.—Are the Democrats of Allen county aware that the election is drawing nigh? They ought to be organizing their forces and preparing for the conflict; but as yet we hear of nothing being done. Clubs ought to be established in every township; frequent meetings held, speeches made, and other means used to enlighten the public mind and defend the Democratic cause from the attacks made on it. Our adversaries are active and using every means to injure their cause, while we remain quiet and do nothing to expose them. More rain has fallen this week than during any week this year.

Water Cress.—Mr. J. P. Browning brings to market fine fresh water cresses—an article not generally known or appreciated here, but held in high estimation by the English, as a great addition to breakfast, supper, or lunch, and at the same time one of the best blood purifiers to be found. Mr. P. has however contended may be even greater benefit in illuminating the stand at the south-east corner of the market house. We would advise our English friends to give him a call, as in addition to the cresses, he also has the finest of vegetables, fruit, &c.

Latest from Oregon.—By the latest news from Oregon, it is conceded that the Democratic candidate to Congress from Oregon is elected and that such a Legislature has been chosen as renders certain the defeat of Gen. Jo. Lane and Delano Smith to the U. S. Senate. Democratic papers, however, claim that no Republican was elected to the Senate, and intimate the Legislator Democrat will compromise their differences so as to secure two Democratic Senators of moderate sentiments.

The Rail Bazaar.—The bazaar of exhibiting rails purposing to have been split by Lincoln and John Hanks, has been pretty effectually exposed by Charles Hanks (brother of John). After alluding to a letter said to have been written by John, in which he is said to say that he will vote for Lincoln & Co., Charles shows that the rails made by Abe and Hanks were destroyed by fire long ago, and that those now sold as the genuine Oregon pines, were in fact made by a man who is now a poor blind pauper. He says:

I am fully persuaded that brother John is taking the strange course that he is now pursuing for the sake of making a little money out of rail speculation, and if I could for some moment think that the Oregon shippers in whose hands he has placed himself would not cheat him out of every cent of the money, I would not spoil the speculation by telling the fact.

The facts in regard to these rails are these: The little farm that John and Abe made the rails to fence entombed ten acres. About five years after this little farm was felled the entire fence was burned up, to my certain knowledge, for I handled the rails to know it (by second time); Lewis B. Ward, who now resides in this country, witness the fire that burned the rails, and he is willing to make affidavit to this fact.

Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Freight Cars for March, April, May, and June, 1860-61.—The Chicago Times is in receipt of the following figures from the freight department of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad for the first four months of the present and last year. It will be seen that the 1860 carings compared with those of 1859 show an aggregate increase of 66 21-100 per cent—it is more than encouraging to the road.

This statement is more than encouraging; it is positively handsome, and is something to boast.

It tells not only a good story for the road, but speaks well for the individual efforts of the officers who have had charge of the freight department.

Principles.—Market generally dull. The various streams report feed and pack heavy, and to effect value a considerable reduction from late quotations would be necessary.

Visit of The Prince of Wales to Washington—Letters of the President and the Queen.

We have the pleasure of laying before our readers today the letter addressed to Queen Victoria by the President of the United States and transmitted through Lord Lyons, along with her Majesty's reply.

It will be seen that the Prince of Wales will visit Washington on his return from Canada, and that during his tour in the United States he will drop in royal state and bear the name of Lord Renfrew, his title in Scotland.

To Her Majesty QUEEN VICTORIA:

I have learned from the public journals that the Prince of Wales is about to visit your Majesty's North American dominions. Should it be the intention of the Royal Highness to extend his visit to the United States, I need not say how happy I shall be to give him a cordial welcome to Washington. You may well assured that everywhere in the country he will be greeted by the warmest sympathy and cordiality.

On the Democratic paper in Virginia, which has defined their position, it is for Breckinridge and Johnson, and it is only that the Prince of Wales will be received with open arms.

Washington, D. C., June 22, 1860.

My Good Friend,

I have been much gratified at the feelings which prompted you to write to me, on my invitation the Prince of Wales to come to Washington. He intends to return from Canada through the United States and it will give him great pleasure to have an opportunity of testifying to you in person that those feelings are fully reciprocated by him. He will be able to, at the same time, to mark the respect which he entertains for the Chief Magistrate of a great and powerful nation.

In the same manner, I have been told that the Prince of Wales will be received with open arms.
